ABOUT CLAIRE+

Self-nominated as the friend who will be in a profound conversation and then whip out a piece of Swiss cheese to share. Claire straddles the line between deep and light heartedness. She's an avid listener and a silly goof.

Originally from Bevis, Ohio. (Yes, that's a real place). She has stated that only a couple of her family got out! "There's over a hundred of us, my dad is one of sixteen. So, yea, I beat the odds." She made the move to NYC as soon as she could.

"My mug has been all over NYC on billboards and buses for beauty campaigns, to all over the world on magazine covers, editorials, and commercials. I've walked the runways in Milan, Shanghai, NYC, and even on the island of Crete. Cincinnati gave me my roots. And New York gave me me."

She was a part of Candy Slice Comedy, an all-female improv sketch group that almost had an MTV show. She's shared the stage with the late Bob Saget, who told her when she wrapped, "You are really funny." Claire has written shorts; Ponies+ and The Wing. The latter, which was inspired by her "Queen City", Cincinnati.

Suzanne Esper & The William Esper Conservatory guided her to fly with her artistic wings. She loves to cry for all emotions.

"For the longest time, I despised bars of soap. I am coming around though; they are easier to travel with. And sometimes I can be too hard on myself, but I find my way out of the unnecessary blame game-quicker these days-I might add."

She is an unexpected chameleon, mesmerizing (so she's been told), and playful at all costs-especially when it counts+

-ARIAN MOAYED /ACTOR-
SUCCESSION, INVENTING ANNA, SPIDER MAN: NO WAY HOME

"Claire is an extremely talented, brave and thrilling performer. She has the unique ability to make you burst out laughing in one scene and then follow it up with a thoughtful, insightful take on relationships in the next. The great thing about seeing Claire perform is you never know which way you'll be entertained."

-ADAM CAWLEY-
WORKIN' MOMS, BARONESS VON SKETCH SHOW, SECOND CITY MAINSTAGE

"Claire is a true gem of an actor (and human). As a director, I trust her to not only bring her best but pull the best out of her fellow performers regardless of the circumstances or their level of experience. She is quick thinking, truly present, and completely 'in it'. I know that whether it's a slapstick comedy or a Tennessee Williams play, I'll believe her and remember her performance."

The Girls of Candy Slice Comedy: The Autostraddle Photoshoot & Interview

Alex: I heard a little something about an Adam Lambert video. Did you guys do that?

Anna: Ohhhhh — yeah. Claire is gonna be playing Adam Lambert. She plays a really good Adam Lambert. She also plays Josh Groban in a sketch we have coming up. Give us your Josh Groban.

Riese: Yeah, do it. (pause) DO IT!

Claire: [singing] You raised me up, so I can stand on mountains. You raised me up!

Shamikah: So we were doing this in an elevator in Regina's building and there was a guy with his poodle and I was like, "It's okay, can your dog be in the video? Keep singing Claire!" And he was like — [does "brush your shoulders off" motion]

Anna: Claire's really good at playing a stripper. I don't know why.

Claire: I like it.

Shamikah: Claire plays guys. She's played a man in like every skit.

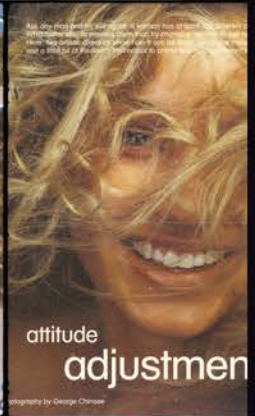

Claire: And I like playing guys.

Anna: She's a man or she's a stripper.

Riese: So you like to play sexually powerful roles.

Claire: Yes I do.
